REISEVERLAUF

Es knackt, es raschelt und brummt, raunt und knistert, wispert, fiept und zwitschert, es plätschert und schmatzt in einer Tour. Nur wenn es hustet, bist du das, vor Aufregung. Die Wildparks in Botswana, Simbabwe und Südafrika aus dem Blickwinkel des Campers, da sind 17 Tage eigentlich zu wenig, aber für zartbesaitete Abenteurer beinahe schon zu viel.

Gerade erst in Johannesburg ① gelandet, geht es am nächsten Tag direkt auf zwei Tage Safari zu den Big Five: den Afrikanischen Elefanten, Afrikanischen Büffeln, Spitzmaulnashörnern, Löwen und Leoparden. Der Afrikanische Wildhund wird ebenfalls im Krüger-Nationalpark ② 3 sein, außerdem rund 250 verschiedene Arten an Reptilien und Säugetieren. Was hier unaufhörlich trällert, sind über 500 Vogelarten. Und wer durch die Büsche pirscht, das sind wir.

Die ehemalige Hauptstadt des untergegangenen Munhumutapa-Reiches ist das älteste Zeugnis frühzeitlicher Urbanität und deshalb Weltkulturerbe. In der Blütezeit mit 18.000 Einwohnern war Great Zimbabwe ④ das politische Machtzentrum des heutigen Simbabwe. Rinderzucht, Goldgewinnung und der Handel mit arabischen Küstenstädten haben zu Palästen und städtischen Strukturen geführt, deren 600 Jahre alte Ruinen zu den berühmtesten Kulturzeugnissen Afrikas gehören.

Cecil Rhodes, Patron und Wüterich des ehemaligen Rhodesien, hat in einer sanftmütigen Stunde den Matobo-Nationalpark ⑤ ⑥ gegründet, wo er am »View of the World« begraben liegt. Die Matobo-Berge waren und sind auch heute noch Kultstätte vieler ethnischer Gruppen, und die viele tausend Jahre alten Felszeichnungen der San schon längst Weltkulturerbe. Ein feines Plätzchen, um unsere Zelte aufzuschlagen und die Sterne zu zählen.

Jedes Land hat sein Reservat, auf dessen Superlative es besonders stolz ist. In Simbabwe ist es der Hwange-Nationalpark ⑦ ⑧. Wüstenwarzenschwein, Rappenantilope, Höckerglanzgans oder Wollkopfgeier sind hier die Helden. Leoparden, Giraffen, Große Kudus und Afrikanische Elefanten der Beifang. Wer sich wann wo am liebsten im Wasserloch suhlt, sein Mittagsschlafchen hält oder sein Abendessen jagt, weiß unser Ranger aus dem Effeff, und wenn die Show beginnt, sind wir schon da.

So hört es sich an, wenn pro Sekunde zehn Millionen Liter Wasser 110 Meter in die Tiefe rauschen. Macht Spaß. Nicht nur David Livingstone, der den Absturz des Sambesi als das Schönste bezeichnete, das er in Afrika zu Gesicht bekommen habe. Schrieb's und nannte das Spektakel zu Ehren der britischen Königin Victoriafälle 9 10. Vom Nebelwald, der allein durch die Gischt entstanden ist, bis zu atemberaubenden Aktivitäten wie der Schluchtschaukel oder einem Helikopterflug über den »donnernden Rauch« gehört die Zeit ganz deinem Bedarf an Adrenalin.

Ein Elefant kommt in Afrika selten allein, aber 120.000 Rüssel, dafür ist der Chobe-Nationalpark 11 zuständig. Und wenn Badetag ist, was jederzeit passieren kann, gehört ihnen der Fluss exklusiv. Da machen Krokodile, Hippos, Löwen, Elands und Wasserböcke freiwillig Platz, bis die Luft bzw. das Wasser wieder rein ist. Gilt nicht für uns. Eine Sundowner-Bootsfahrt auf dem Chobe River kann auch ein Jumbo nicht stoppen.

Ein Baobab speichert bis zu 160.000 Liter Wasser, weshalb ihn Elefanten in Dürrezeiten gerne anzapfen. Danach ist er allerdings hinüber und sein hohler Stamm dient als Gefängnis oder Toilette. Brauchen wir nicht, unser Camp in Gweta 12 hat eigene. Ganz in der Nähe zerbröselt der Okavango 13 14 auf der sagenhaften Fläche von 20.000 Quadratkilometern in ein Delta mit unzähligen Wasserläufen, 1.300 Pflanzenarten, 71 Fischarten, 33 Amphibienarten, 64 Reptilienarten, 444 Vogelarten und 122 Arten der seltensten Säugetiere. Dann die Katastrophe. Beim Übertritt in die rote Kalahari-Wüste haucht er sein Leben aus. Schlurp und wech. Aber vorher nehmen wir auf lautlosen Mokoro-Trips alles mit, was sich vor uns versteckt hat.

Viele glückliche Stunden waren wir in einer einzigartigen Fauna und Flora zu Hause. Haben uns von Hippos angrunzen und von paradiesischen Vogelschwärmen zuträllern lassen. Zeit, die Zelte abzubrechen und mit einem optionalen Heliflug über das Delta die letzten Bilder von deinem Okavango-Abenteuer zu machen. Maun 15, der Ausgangspunkt unseres Abenteuers, hat manchmal sogar WLAN, falls du etwas Neid nach Hause posten möchtest.

So bescheuert die Vorstellung ist, das Horn des Rhinoceros könnte aphrodisierende Wirkung haben, so schwer ist dieser Irrglaube auszurotten. Was stattdessen bald ausgerottet sein wird, sind die majestätischen Kolosse aus dem frühen Oligozän, also von vor rund 30 Millionen Jahren. Vielleicht kann das Khama-Rhino-Schutzgebiet 16 helfen, die schwarzen und weißen Muskelpakete auf ihren kurzen Beinen über die Zeit zu retten. Heute tragen wir unseren Teil dazu bei und hoffen, sie zeigen sich dankbar. Wenigstens für ein paar Fotos. Es werden deine letzten Aufnahmen sein, falls du nicht noch Gefallen am Flughafen Johannesburg 17 findest. Aber es ist bestimmt sinnvoller, die Speicherkarte zu schonen für deinen nächsten Adventure-Trip mit Chamäleon.

IMPORTANT NOTES

- Please note that while most of the departures are guaranteed, there are certain dates that require a minimum number of participants to run this tour. If the minimum number cannot be reached, it may be necessary to cancel a departure. We will inform you at least 30 days prior to departure to let you know, if the tour goes ahead or not.
- A local payment of 300 US-$ per person is required on this safari and this will be collected by your tour leader at the welcome meeting on day 1. The local payment forms part of your overall tour cost, and must be taken into consideration when booking your safari. It will be used by your tour leaders to pay for some of the operational costs incurred on safari that can only be paid in cash (such as petrol, food and local guides).
- An essential part of your safari is participation. From putting up your tent to packing the truck in the morning – it's all part of your adventure. Your tour leaders will do all the meal preparation but we do ask you to help (on rotation) with the washing up. Please note that although we have all the correct paperwork, the Beitbridge border crossing into Zimbabwe can take a long time, which can make for a particularly long day.
- Anyone who is generally active and in good health should enjoy this trip.
- For 13 nights on safari we stay at designated permanent campsites in national parks, on private land and in towns. Campsite facilities are generally very good but in places can be basic. There are hot and cold showers, restaurants, washing facilities and telephones available at most of the campsites. Some camps have simple reed enclosures for showers but do have flush toilets! We supply all the camping equipment with the exception of your sleeping bag and pillow. The dome tents we use are 2.2 x 2.2 x 1.8 meters and putting them up or down takes only 5 minutes. Tents have built-in insect nets. We supply mattresses, which are about 5 cm thick, warm and comfortable.
- For 2 nights while in the Okavango Delta we camp wild without fences. Bush camps have no facilities; we will need to take our own water and all equipment. On these nights the crew will erect a bucket shower (with hot water off the fire) and a pit latrine (with seat!). Wild camping can be very enjoyable but please remember that we leave no trace of our stay and take all rubbish away with us.
- The distance and travel times quoted above are an estimate only and do not include stops for lunch or sightseeing.
- We use custom-built trucks with 12 forward facing seats; or (on 10% of tours)

Mercedes Sprinter minibuses with 12 forward facing seats and air conditioning. For the game drives in Matobos, Hwange, Chobe and the transfer into the Okavango we use open 4WD vehicles with local guides.

- Single supplements are limited to two per trip. Please let us know, if you would like to book a single, so that we can check the availability.
- Visas are the responsibility of the individual traveller. Entry requirements can change at any time, so it's important that you check for the latest information. Please visit the relevant consular website of the country or countries you're visiting for detailed and up-to-date visa information specific to your nationality. Visas can take several weeks to process, so familiarise yourself with any requirements as soon as you have booked your trip to allow for processing time and costs.
- This is a shared tour. That means that tour operators from all over the world book their guests onto this tour. So you will be travelling in an international group.
- We suggest you bring between 10€ and 30€ per day depending on what you want to do in the way of optional activities, curio shopping and tour guide tips.

NOTES ON OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES

- We are not able to guarantee any of the mentioned optional activities.
- Please inform your guide about the activities you want to book.
- We strongly recommend not to make any reservations before the tour because many activities depend on weather conditions.
- Rates for optional activities can change at any time.
- All optional activities have to be paid in cash to the guide
